

22 YEARS
OF CITIZEN
AWARENESS AND EDUCATION

Much has changed in the last twenty plus years, but one requirement has remained constant – the importance of citizen engagement in local government. Whether newly arrived to Charlotte Mecklenburg or a life-long resident, we all have the right and the responsibility to be involved in our local government.

The League of Women Voters of Charlotte Mecklenburg invites you to register for our Civics 101 program. These five weekly, one-evening-per-week sessions are designed for you to learn about our local government: City, County Courts, CMS Board of Education and County. During these four sessions, speakers with current and former experience describe the function and share their experiences. The fifth session is when Sherry Chisenhall and Taylor Batten of the Charlotte Observer bring us up-to-date on the media’s responsibility to inform citizens. This is particularly important in 2017.

The registration will be on a first-come, first-served basis for a maximum of 60 attendees. The price for the five sessions, including materials, snacks for the first four sessions and a catered dinner at the last one, is $60. Sign-up is reserved for those on the waiting list until September 4, then for League members until September 9 and then for everyone.
