

Health Care Justice: Improved Medicare for All

Sunday, February 10, 2019 • 3 PM to 5 PM

Queens University Belk Chapel on Radcliffe Ave.

Join our “Teach In” to learn about Improved Medicare for All and how to take constituent action.

This event is part of the National Medicare for All Week of Action (February 9th - 13th)

Locally Sponsored by:

Queens University Student Groups of Health Care Justice and Call to Action and Health Care Justice – NC (Charlotte Chapter of Physicians for a National Health Program)

3 PM: Welcome; Presentation of the documentary “Fix It”

3:45 PM: Q&A; Download online quiz app and elected reps’ numbers.

4 PM: Overview of new Improved Medicare for All Bill; Participating Organizations’ Comments

4:15 PM: Video “Canadian Health Care System Explained”

4:25 PM: Participating Organizations’ Comments

4:30 PM: A live Health Care Quiz of attendees using mobile app

4:40 PM: Participating Organizations’ Comments

4:45 PM: M4A Goals; Sign M4A Resolution; Make Calls!

4:55 PM: Upcoming Events

5 PM: Q&A, Organizations’ Info in Rotunda and Lobby

Attendees will also have the opportunity to ask questions of physicians, policy leaders, health administrators, providers, faculty, legislators and community organizers in the Rotunda at information tables following the presentation.

Participating Organizations:

Greenspon Center for Peace and Social Justice
Poor People’s Campaign Southern Piedmont Circle
Charlotte National Organization for Women
Democratic Women of Mecklenburg County
Reproductive Rights Coalition • DSA
Carolina Jews for Justice • Action NC
League of Women Voters Charlotte Mecklenburg

Refreshments provided. Park at Harris Welcome Center lot off Radcliffe Ave or behind Myers Park Traditional Elementary School off Radcliffe Ave.