

Bring democracy
back to N.C.

We must demand that North Carolina - like many states and democratic countries - adopt a non-partisan process for creating voting districts.

As long as the dominant party is allowed to gerrymander we are stuck with legislators whose re-elections are guaranteed.

They are only accountable to the hard-core base. By definition, North Carolina is no longer a fully-functioning democracy.

- Debbie Snowdon,
Denver, N.C.

The Charlotte Observer