

LUNCH WITH THE LEAGUE

Dimple Ajmera was elected to a first term on Charlotte City Council in November 2017. She previously served one year as an appointed District 5 representative. Dimple is widely known for her leadership in bringing new life and opportunities to the former 69-acre Eastland Mall site. She is passionate about creating a sustainable, equitable and safe Charlotte and currently chairs the city's Environmental Committee, which is focused on committing Charlotte to become a "global leader in environmental sustainability, balancing economic growth, while preserving our natural resources." Dimple has the proud distinction of being the first Asian-American and the youngest woman to serve on the Charlotte City Council
